

LC Field Connector

Standard Connector

Crimped Connector

The optistar LC Field connector is an easy to install Connector for terminating and repairing optistar fibre connections out in the field.

Coming in two styles; the Standard connector with a small convenient form factor and the longer crimped connector, for use in more rugged environments and using the same quality materials as the connectors found on Optistar preterminated cables the Optistar LC Field Connector ensures high performance connections.